WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY OF GREEN PLANET FILMS, INC.

ARTICLE 1: INTRODUCTION AND PURPOSE

Green Planet Films, Inc. (the "Corporation") requires its directors, officers, employees and volunteers to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. The purpose of this policy is to encourage and enable employees and volunteers of the Corporation to report any action or suspected action taken within the Corporation that is illegal, fraudulent or in violation of any adopted policy of the Corporation, to a source within the Corporation before turning to outside parties for resolution. This policy applies to any matter which is related to the Corporation's business and does not relate to private acts of an individual not connected to the business of the Corporation. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace the Corporation's unlawful harassment and discrimination policy, "open door policy" and/or any other grievance procedure, and any applicable state and federal laws governing whistleblowing applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

ARTICLE 2: VIOLATIONS; REPORTING IN GOOD FAITH

All board members, employees and volunteers of the Corporation are encouraged to report any action or suspected action taken within the Corporation that is illegal, fraudulent or in violation of any adopted policy of the Corporation (each, a "Violation"). Anyone reporting a Violation must act in good faith, without malice to the Corporation or any individual in the Corporation, and have reasonable grounds for believing that the information shared in the report indicates that a Violation has occurred.

ARTICLE 3: NO RETALIATION

No board member, employee or volunteer who in good faith reports a Violation or cooperates in the investigation of a Violation shall suffer harassment, retaliation or adverse employment or volunteer consequences. Any individual within the Corporation who retaliates against another individual who in good faith has reported a Violation or has cooperated in the investigation of a Violation is subject to discipline, including termination of employment or volunteer status.

If an individual believes that someone who has made a report of a Violation or who has cooperated in the investigation of a Violation is suffering from harassment, retaliation or other adverse employment or volunteer consequences, the individual should contact the Compliance Officer.

Any individual who reasonably believes he or she has been retaliated against in violation of this policy shall follow the same procedures as for filing a complaint (outlined in Article 4 below).

ARTICLE 4: REPORTING PROCESS

If an individual reasonably believes that a Violation has occurred, the individual is encouraged to share his or her questions, concerns, suggestions or complaints with any person within the Corporation who may be able to address them properly.

In most cases, the direct supervisor of an individual is the person best suited to address a concern. However, if an individual is not comfortable speaking with his or her supervisor or if he or she is not satisfied with the supervisor's response, the individual is encouraged to speak directly to the Compliance Officer, Suzanne Harle, Executive Director or any other Board Member he or she feels comfortable approaching.

ARTICLE 5: CONFIDENTIALITY

The Corporation encourages anyone reporting a Violation to identify himself or herself when making a report in order to facilitate the investigation of the Violation. However, reports may be submitted on a confidential basis by the complainant or may be submitted anonymously by mailing concerns to PO Box 247, Corte Madera, CA 94976-0247. Reports of Violations or suspected Violations will be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation, to comply with all applicable laws, and to cooperate with law enforcement authorities. Furthermore, the Corporation will explore anonymous allegations to the extent possible, but will weigh the prudence of continuing such investigations against the likelihood of confirming the alleged facts or circumstances from attributable sources.

ARTICLE 6: COMPLIANCE OFFICER; HANDLING REPORTED VIOLATIONS

The board member who receives a report of a Violation from the complainant is required to notify the Compliance Officer of that report, except as provided below with respect to a report relating to the Compliance Officer. The Compliance Officer will notify the complainant and acknowledge receipt of a report of Violation within five business days, but only to the extent that the complainant’s identity is disclosed or a return address is provided.

The Compliance Officer is responsible for promptly investigating all reported Violations and for causing appropriate corrective action to be taken if warranted by the investigation. The complainant will be notified about what actions will be taken, to the extent reasonably possible and consistent with any privacy or confidentiality limitations. If no further action or investigation is to follow, an explanation for the decision will be given to the complainant.

In the event the Compliance Officer is suspected of having committed a Violation, then the Violation will be reported to the Board President and the Violation will be investigated by the President under close supervision of the other Board of Directors.
Compliance Officer: Suzanne Harle, 415 377 5471

ARTICLE 7: ACCOUNTING AND AUDITING MATTERS; REPORTS

The President and Treasurer are responsible for addressing all reported concerns or complaints of Violations relating to corporate accounting practices, internal controls or auditing. Therefore, the Compliance Officer must immediately notify the President and Treasurer of any such concern or complaint.

In addition, the Compliance Officer will advise the Board President and/or the Treasurer of any other reported Violations, the current status of the investigation, and the outcome or corrective action taken at the conclusion of the investigation.
